

Upskilling Short Course

Coaching Training Workshop

Overview

The Coaching Training Workshop is ideal for employees who are interested in and need to develop their knowledge and understanding regarding good practice in workplace coaching of existing employees.

This workshop has many exciting factors that enable further progression opportunities through upskilling short courses, traineeships and advanced level apprenticeships, with full training and support provided throughout.

Benefits

There are several reasons and benefits for taking part in this course through Protocol Consultancy Services, including but not limited to:

- Gaining a nationally recognised qualification that can assist with future employment.
- Developing a greater understanding of good practice when it comes to Coaching Training in the workplace.
- Training sessions can be delivered as distance learning via Teams or through locally based workshops.
- Enhancing both your personal skills and professional development which will assist in future employability.
- And, Personal Tutors are assigned to you to ensure that you have the support needed to succeed.

Delivered by:

serco

Co-financed by:

Education & Skills
Funding Agency

European Union European Social Fund

